

Open Corporation ranking, An additional twenty companies

An additional twenty companies were added, representing around two million workers. The observatory has reached the objective of monitoring 200 multinational companies, employing 26.5 million workers. We will publish a transparency ranking on Thursday September 21st, where will the new entries position themselves?

<http://opencorporation.org/en/indice-trasparenza>

The #OpenCorporationRanking concerning the 200 companies will be presented publicly in Brussels on November 16th, and will allow comparisons at a country and sector level. twenty companies