Concerns: Delegation of HRCT affiliates to Tunisia

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Following our decision to move the HRCT conference to Geneva from Tunisia we still wish to express support for our members in Tunisia by sending a delegation of HRCT/tourism affiliates led by HRCT president Norberto Latorre and the IUF general secretary.

The proposed dates for this are:

September 17:	Arrival in Tunisia
September 18:	Meeting focused on tourism with IUF Tunisian affiliate FGAT-UGTT
September 19-20:	Meeting with a broader group of Arabic-speaking affiliates to discuss developments and issues in the broader group of sectors represented by the IUF
September 20 (evening) or September 21:	Departure from Tunisia

The languages for this delegation are provisionally planned to be Arabic, English or French and Spanish. The secretariat will explore additional language provision based on the response to this invitation.

Please indicate as soon as possible whether you are interested in attending.

You might also wish to note that we will be organizing a "fact-finding" visit to Egypt but this will take place either later in the year or early in 2012 (timing will be based on further developments in Egypt and in the labour movement there).

Yours in solidarity,

Ron Oswald
General Secretary
